

Curriculum Vitae of Rana Hamdy Abdel Salam

CV objective:

- Assistant lecturer of Pediatrics Hemato-Oncology.

Contact information:

- Address: 34 Omar Ebn El Khatab, embaba, Giza, Egypt.
- Phone number: home; (+202-35429183) cellular; (01211170573)
- E-mail: ranahamdynci@gmail.com.

Personal data:

- Date of birth: 30/7/1984
- Place of birth: Giza.
- Nationality: Egyptian.
- Marital status: single.

Education:

- 2010 – 2012, National Cancer Institute – Cairo University.
 - Master degree of pediatric oncology,
 - First part: November 2011 (rate of appreciation: very good)
 - Second part: November 2012 (rate of appreciation: very good).
- 2001 – 2007, Faculty of Medicine – Cairo University.
 - Bachelor degree of general medicine and surgery.
 - Cumulative rate of appreciation: distinction with honor degree (87.7%)
- 1998 – 2000, El Orman Secondary School, Giza.
 - General secondary certificate.

Languages:

- Arabic: native language.
- English: fluently spoken and written.
- French: fairly spoken.

Work experience:

- Academic:
 - 27 months as an assistant lecturer of pediatric oncology the pediatric oncology department of National Cancer Institute, Egypt. (January 2015 – till present).
 - 24 months as a demonstrator of pediatric oncology the pediatric oncology department of National Cancer Institute, Egypt. (January 2013 – December 2014).

- 27 months as a resident doctor at the pediatric oncology department of National Cancer Institute, Egypt. (October 2010 – December 2012).
- 9 months as a resident doctor in pediatrics at Aboul Rish university hospital. (January 2010 – September 2010).
- One year as a house officer in Cairo University Hospitals. (March 2008 - February 2009).
- Non-academic:
 - Working as a registrar of pediatric oncology in the Children Cancer Hospital of Egypt, 57357(starting from July 2013).

Job skills:

- Emergency management:
 - Competent dealing with oncologic emergencies, by proper management or instant referral for selected cases.
- Supportive care of cancer patients:
 - Skillful management of febrile neutropenia according to the latest guidelines.
 - Adequate experience of community and hospital acquired infections common in pediatric cancer patients.
 - Experienced in blood components transfusion therapy and nutritional care of pediatric cancer patients.
- Intensive care of cancer patients:
 - Adequate experience of intubation techniques, ventilators settings and inotropes infusions.
- Pediatric oncology skills:
 - Good knowledge of diagnostic work-up for various hematologic and solid pediatric tumors with skillful interpretation of results.
 - Proper staging and risk stratification of newly diagnosed cases.
 - Well acquainted with common chemotherapeutic regimens used for pediatric malignancies.
- Pharmacologic skills:
 - Good knowledge of antimicrobial therapy; susceptibility spectra, patterns of resistance, common side effects and drug interactions.
 - Well oriented with chemotherapeutic agents used in pediatric oncology; their mechanism of action, common adverse effects, as well as their clinical indications.

- Procedures and maneuvers:
 - Excellent in lumbar puncture and intrathecal injections.
 - Skilled in cannulation, blood sampling, catheterization and naso-gastric tube insertion.
 - Fair experience with sonar - guided biopsy techniques.
- Para-medical skills:
 - Professional analysis of all laboratory data and correlating it with clinical findings.
 - Skillful interpretation of X-rays, CT scan, MRI and other radiological studies.

{All documents and certificates are available upon request}