

Qualifications

Licentiate degree:

University: Cairo University.

College: Faculty of Arts.

Department: library, Archive and information technology department- Library section.

Class: 2012.

Overall grade: very Good.

Master Program In Library Science (Credit Hours system)

Class: 2013.

Overall grade: Very Good

Current Position

Demonstrator at Cairo University -Faculty of Arts – Library, Archive and Information Technology department.

Training Experience

Course: TOEFL Test

- Date: 2014
- From: The Center for Foreign Languages and Professional Translation

Course: Use of Technology in Teaching

- Date: June 2014
- From: FLDC

Course: Effective Teaching Skills

- Date: January 2014
- From: FLDC

Course: The Credit hour systems

- Date: September 2012
 - From: FLDC
-

Course: Effective presentation Skills

- Date: December 2014
 - From: FLDC
-

Workshop: Specifications and standards in the field of library and information

- Date: March 2014
 - From: The new central library at Cairo university
-

Course: Building digital collections by using open-source software: Dspace as a model

- Date: October 2014
 - From: The new central library at Cairo university
-

Workshop: Applications of cloud computing in documented the scientific literature.

- Date: October 2014
 - From: The new central library at Cairo university
-

Work Experience

I participated in teaching these courses:

- Introduction to information Technology -1th year
- Practical field training - 4th year
- Electronic Authority Control systems- 3th year (for 2 academic years)

Currently:

- Cataloguing and Metadata -2th year (2014)

Awards

Professor Muhammad Muhammad Alhady Award, 2013