

Star of the class (optional assignment)

Star of the class adds value, inspires students and professor, and stimulates discussion on relevant topics of interest that are either controversial or of recent and practical value.

Your input is of material based on your research either from online sources or interviews and questionnaires of relevant people.

You submit a one page written summary + be creative in your presentation

DO NOT use class material and DO NOT recite from your written report.

Max. group members: 2

Week 6 assignment:

Provide an overview of one of the following:

- Apple's accounting policy change in 2016, which resulted in increasing revenue and lowering deferred revenue, eventually leading to overstated profits.
- Toshiba's $1.2 billion overstatement of earnings due to inappropriate accounting practices, which got revealed in 2015.

Deadline: submit & present in week 7