

A bed with headrest and feet rest decorated with animal shapes

Different chairs with backs or foldable have legs shaped like animal legs.

Golden throne, tomb of Tutankhamun (1336–1327 BC). The chair is almost completely covered with thick gold sheet. The seat, a flat board of wood covered in gold, is decorated with over 2000 squares of gold, calcite and faience.

Chair, tomb of Tutankhamun,
Egyptian Museum

Reconstructed armchair of Queen
Hetepheres Cairo Museum

Bedroom furniture (The New Kingdom 1075-1554 B.C) made of wood. The headrest at the upper side of the bed frame.

A replica of Queen Hetepheres' bedroom made from gilded wood

A Chest found in Tutankhamen's tomb

