

Illustrated pediatrics is one of the popular books especially in middle east countries. The first edition appeared in 2000, and since that time, It became a well established textbook for undergraduate medical students for many years . It presents the whole of the curriculum in the form of high quality photos, figures, tables and illustrations. In this new edition, the contents has been extensively updated and many new photos are added and it has been considerably improved in format to enhance its already considerable appeal

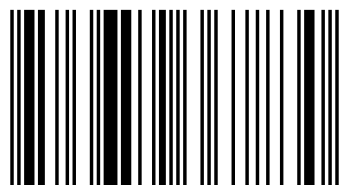

Mostafa Zakaria

ILLUSTRATED PEDIATRICS

Mostafa Zakaria

Dr. Mostafa Zakaria, is a professor of pediatrics at Cairo university in EGYPT. He is also a consultant in pediatrics neurology at New Children Hospital, which is one of the biggest hospitals in the middle east. He is especially interested in medical education, sharing in the development of pediatrics curriculum in many countries.

978-3-659-36783-0

Zakaria

 LAMBERT
Academic Publishing