

Dr. Ilham Youssry, MD-CT-MHPE- FAIMER

Dr. Ilham has more than twenty years of experience in training and teaching at both national and international levels.

She is a professor of Pediatrics at the Faculty of Medicine Cairo University where she teaches, assesses and constructs curricula for undergraduates and postgraduates medical school students. Also, she is a researcher in the medical and educational fields with more than thirty publications in the national and the international journals.

Dr. Ilham is an international certified trainer from the International Board of Certified Trainers (IBCT), Netherlands. She has a Master's degree in Health Profession Education (MHPE) from Maastricht University, Netherlands and Suez Canal University, Egypt. She is a trainer/ instructor in many national and international training programs/ courses such as: the Egyptian fellowship (ElZamalla ElMasrya), the Faculty and Leadership Development programs (FLDP), the TOT of the Royal college of Surgery of Ireland and the American University in Cairo (AUC).

Dr. Ilham is a fellow in the Foundation for Advancement of International Medical Education and Research (FAIMER), Philadelphia, USA. As a FAIMER member, Dr. Ilham is exposed regularly to the new teaching and assessment strategies. Dr. Ilham is an intern of the editorial internship program in Medical Education, UK.

Contacts:      ilhamyousry@yahoo.com      &      ilhamyousry@aucegypt.edu      &
ilhamyousry@kasralainy.edu

Mobile: 01001684117 &01205555848