Prior to starting an application, please complete the following steps:

Step 1: Learn requirements for submitting an application
Before you begin an application, read the program’s eligibility criteria listed here. If you need further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us at flta@bfce.eun.eg.

Program Overview:
The Fulbright Commission invites applications for the Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA) Program. The FLTA program provides early career teachers of English as a Foreign Language, or of related fields such as American Studies, or English/American Literature, the opportunity to refine their teaching skills, increase their English language proficiency and broaden their knowledge of the society and culture of the United States, while strengthening the instruction of foreign languages at colleges and universities in the United States. Applications from teachers in the fields of journalism and media studies will also be considered on a case-by-case basis. FLTAs from Egypt assist in the teaching of Arabic at select U.S. universities during their nine-month non-degree grant beginning in August/September 2019. The participants also interact with their host communities in conversation groups, extracurricular activities, and community outreach projects.

The FLTA Program promotes cross-cultural understanding in the U.S. and in the home countries of the FLTA fellows. U.S. universities benefit from the presence of a native speaker on their campuses. FLTA fellows provide teaching assistance by serving in various capacities, which may include teaching up to two Arabic classes at host institutions per semester, and typically facilitating cultural events, language clubs and language tables. FLTA fellows are required to enroll in at least two courses per semester, one of which must be in U.S. Studies.

The FLTA is a nine-month, non-degree program that is non-renewable. No dependents are allowed to accompany fellows on this program.

The Fulbright Commission in Egypt will conduct the initial screening and nomination of applications. Applications of nominated candidates only will be forwarded to the U.S. for further review. Nominations and selections are based on the criteria included in the “FLTA Applicant Profile” section above. Final selection of Fulbright FLTA fellows is dependent on the ability to match the requests of U.S. host institutions with the language skills of the nominated candidates.
Important Information:

A) Standardized Tests:

If selected, FLTAs will be required to take an International Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL iBT). More details regarding the TOEFL iBT will be sent after selection.

B) Duration of Grants: The Fulbright FLTA grant is awarded for one academic year usually beginning in August and ending in May. The FLTA Program is a NON-DEGREE program.
