EDUCATION

1995	M.B., B.Ch.*	Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt Grade excellent with honor
2002	M.Sc. Public Health	Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt
2006	M.D.  (Ph.D.)	Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt. Thesis was conducted in collaboration with Georgetown University, USA.

* M.B., B. Ch.: Medical Bachelor and Bachelor of Chemistry equivalent to M.D. in American system.

** M.D.: Medical Doctorate in Egyptian system is fulfilled by the Ph.D. thesis and passing advanced courses relevant to the subject.

MAJOR RESEARCH INTERESTS AND PUBLIC HEALTH ACTIVITIES

The research projects and public health activities that the researcher leads or participates in, presents an integrated effort to assist in combating tobacco epidemic in Egypt. This is through provision of the domestic scientific evidence necessary to support policy decisions.

In addition to provision of technical assistance to governments to implement effective tobacco control measures according to best practices and international agreements. The research projects and national projects involved the following:

- Epidemiology of tobacco use behavior and addiction
- Genetics of tobacco use and addiction
- Biological and environmental markers of tobacco exposure and tobacco harms
- Tobacco control: provision of technical assistance to governments and civil society for the effective implementation of tobacco control policies at both national and regional (Middle East) levels.

A key Member of the taskforce in drafting the national Strategic plan for MOHP and a key member of the committee for drafting the health pillar for the Sustainable Development Strategy for Egypt 2030.

The lead person in drafting the Egyptian health map that includes health services, morbidities, mortalities and health expenditure.

POSITIONS

1996-1997	House officer, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
1997-1998	Gynecology and Obstetrics' residency, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
1999-2002	Demonstrator at Public Health Department, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
2002-2006	Assistant Lecturer at Public Health Department, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
2003-2008	Senior Researcher in Egyptian Smoking Prevention Research Institute (ESPRI) at the National Hepatology and Tropical Medicine Research Institute. A joint program of MOHP-Egypt and Georgetown University – USA.
2006-2012	Lecturer at Public Health Department, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
2012- present	Assistant Professor at Public Health Department, Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, Egypt.
